

A Play By WARREN GOLDIE
WARSAW
STAGED READING

WHEN

Thurs., Dec. 13th
7:30 - 9pm

A young man and his family passionately explore their relationships against the searing backdrop of war and genocide in 1940 Poland. A moving, exuberant drama that explores the irrepressible power of love to transform lives and transcend even the darkest of situations.

WHERE

THEATRE STAGE AT CENTRAL PARK HOME FURNISHINGS
56 N Main St, Fairfield, IA 52556
West side of the Fairfield Square

COST: $5 suggested donation

★ Featured Play
Playwrights Showcase of the Western Region

★ Finalist
Baltimore Playwrights Festival

STARRING

Andrew Edlin
Rose Waggoner
George Kelley
Meredith Siemsen
Peter Kennedy
Celeste Siemsen
Patrick Bosold
Miles Siemsen

REVIEWS

"A moving script and theme ... The lines are like poetry."

"Beautifully written."

Approx. 80 mins.
No intermission.